Don't Spend Money to Make Money Online Job Scams

If you have been looking for an online job, you no doubt have seen the eye catching graphics and hypnotizing words that fraudsters try to entice us with;

Here are some things to consider when looking for online work:

- Many scammers are looking to score information so they can dip their greedy fingers into your bank accounts;
- They want you to pay them first, for example $49.99. Now think about it, if they scammed about 1000 people to buy their scam, they would make about $49,990.00;
- Do not give personal bank account, PayPal account, or credit card numbers to anyone online unless you have verified them as a reputable business;
- Do not forward, transfer, or "wire" money to an employer or person, do not transfer money and retain a portion for payment;
- Be wary of extravagant claims about performance or earnings potential. Get all promises in writing and review them carefully before making a payment or signing a contract;
- Never do business with someone who posts an ad with misspellings and grammatical errors.

Prevent Financial Elder Abuse!
